

We have been learning to add two numbers together. We have used objects (manipulatives) and drawn pictures to represent our thinking. We can read and write number sentences and calculate the answers. 😊

