Science at Long Melford Primary school

We can all use the correct scientific vocabulary.

We are all involved in purposeful practical activities.

We get the chance to work with other people

We are all able to ask questions and talk about our learning

We are curious

We are able to think like scientists developing a range of scientific skills

We have a chance to assess our work. our own learning